The pre-emptive right shall be exercised in the form of a written statement provided by registered letter to the shareholder intending to sell registered shares. Where a number of shareholders holding registered shares submit a statement on the exercise of pre-emptive right, the shares being sold shall be allocated to the authorised shareholders in portions proportional to the number of registered shares held by them.
3. Should a shareholder intend to dispose of registered shares in another manner than by selling them, in particular in the case of a donation consisting of these shares or contributing them to the company, the other shareholders holding registered shares ("Other Shareholders") shall have the pre-emptive right to acquire these shares in line with the conditions specified below in paragraphs 4 to 11 of this § 13 ("Pre-emptive Right").
4. A shareholder who intends to dispose of registered shares in another manner than by selling them ("Transferring Shareholder") shall inform each of the Other Shareholders about the intention to dispose of the shares in the Company in favour of the Proposed Purchaser, in the form of a written statement sent by registered mail and containing:

- a) quantity, type, series and numbers of shares the shareholder intends to dispose of ("Transferred Shares") and the title under which the Transferred Shares are to be disposed of,

 - a) an amount corresponding to the average price of the ordinary shares of the Company on the Warsaw Stock Exchange, weighted by trade volume, from the period of three months ending on the day directly preceding the day on which the Transferring Shareholder sent the first of the Transfer Offers addressed to Other Shareholders ("Listing Period"), or
 - b) where it is impossible to arrive at the unit value of these Shares in accordance with the provisions of item (a) above (e.g. because the ordinary shares of the company are not listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange or are listed over a period shorter than the Listing Period) – an amount corresponding to the unit issue price of the ordinary shares of the Company determined for the last registered issue of Company's shares with regard to which the shareholder have been deprived from the right of subscription, or

Should there be more than one Accepting Shareholder, the Specified Price payable by each of the Accepting Shareholders shall be understood as part of the Specified Price in an amount proportional to the quantity of Transferred Shares acquired by a specific Accepting Shareholder. An Accepting Shareholder who fails to timely pay the Specified Price or its part shall pay the Specified Price or its part with statutory default interest. Where delay in the payment of the Specified Price or its price is longer than 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the payment term, the Transferring Shareholder shall have the right to withdraw from the agreement entered into with the Accepting Shareholder concerned.

10. Where the acquisition of Shares of the Company by any of the Accepting Shareholders requires obtaining prior administrative permits or authorisation, the seven-day term for transferring the Transferred Shares to that Accepting Shareholder and for the payment of the Specified Price by them, defined in paragraph 9 above, shall start as of the moment on which a relevant decision of the competent authority is served on the Accepting Shareholder, provided that the Shareholder has submitted a relevant application for such a permit or authorisation not later than within 14 (fourteen) calendar days as of receiving the Notice of Pre-emptive Right Exercise or within a shorter period provided for in law regulations. In the case of failure to submit the application for all necessary administrative permits or authorisations within the time limit specified above or where such permits or authorisations are not given to the Accepting Shareholders within 6 (six) months as of submitting the application to the competent authority for such a permit or authorisation, the Pre-emptive Right shall expire with regard to that Shareholder, while the Transferred Shares allocated to them shall be disposed of to other Accepting Shareholders in line with the principles defined in paragraphs 5 to 9 above.

A shareholder intending to create a pledge or usufruct on registered shares shall submit to the Management Board a written application addressed to the Supervisory Board for the consent to such a manner of disposing of these shares. Within 7 (say: seven) days as of the date of receiving the application, the Management Board shall provide a copy thereof to the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board may adopt a resolution by the qualified majority of $\frac{3}{4}$ (say: three fourths) of votes, objecting to the intention of pledging or creating a usufruct on registered shares in favour of a specific third person. Should the resolution objecting to the pledge or usufruct not be adopted within 30 (say: thirty) days as of the date on which the relevant application for the consent was provided to the Supervisory Board, it shall be assumed that the Supervisory Board has granted consent.
